President's Circle

A Leadership of Giving

Become a member of the President's Circle by contributing an annual unrestricted gift of $1,000 or more. The President's Circle allows the Los Angeles Valley College Foundation to:

- Continue its mission to serve Los Angeles Valley College and its students.
- Award student scholarships and stipends. $173,000 awarded last year!
- Develop and grow endowments, which now total $4.9 million, and provide long-term support to the Foundation to address the College's needs.
- Distribute and fund various campus programs and projects. Last year, over $350,000 was distributed to LAVC.

CREATING A SPRINGBOARD TO SUCCESS ONE STUDENT AT A TIME

Los Angeles Valley College (LAVC) provides education for its students and creates new programs to meet the needs of the community. In addition, LAVC provides workforce education that focuses on emerging trends in the workplace in order to supply employees with skilled graduates who meet the needs of today's businesses.

The Tradition of Excellence Founded in 1949, LAVC is a well-respected leader among the Los Angeles Community Colleges. Support from individuals, corporations and foundations helps make a difference in the lives of dedicated and deserving students.

- More than 17,000 students in over 100 degree or certificate programs.
- More than 1 million students have passed through LAVC since 1949.
- Recognized Workforce Development Program by the City of Los Angeles and the US Department of Labor.

Community Colleges Play a Key Role

- Seventy-three percent of all California's college students attend community college.
- Nearly 60% of graduates of the California State University system, and 30% of the University of California system, transferred from a California Community College.
- Community Colleges grant more degrees to minority students than the University of California and private colleges combined.

Your Support Directly Impacts Student Success

"The scholarship I received help me pay in part for my Fall 2019 semester. As a hard working mom, this scholarship means a light of hope that shines as I move towards my goal and helps me provide an example to my sons through education. The LAVC Foundation and its donors have really made a positive impact in my life and in my family." - Ariadna Sanchez
